

Shinnecock SAMP (Substance Abuse Motivation Project)

with

The Long Island Council on Alcoholism and Drug Dependence

present a

FREE NALOXONE TRAINING

The opiate crisis has impacted communities across Long Island. Naloxone (aka NARCAN) is a life-saving medication that can reverse potentially fatal overdoses. We'll teach you the symptoms of addiction, signs of an overdose, and how to administer this life saving medication.

Training provided by Steve Chassman, CASAC, LCSW

Executive Director of LICADD

December 15, 10AM

at

Shinnecock Presbyterian Church

100 Church St

Southampton, NY 11968

LONG ISLAND
COUNCIL ON ALCOHOLISM
AND DRUG DEPENDENCE

LICADD