

Town of Southampton ~ Civil War Veterans

William S. Jagger

Hometown: Sag Harbor

Jagger served in the 127th New York Volunteer Infantry Regiment, known as the "Monitors," in Company I.

In September 1862, at the age of 20, he mustered in with the rank of Private. He was wounded in action on December 9, 1864, at the Battle of Tulifinny, at Deveaux's Neck, S.C.

He mustered out on June 30, 1865, at Charleston, S.C. with his company.

1861~1865

©2022